Events

It's exam time! This means... come check out Club Mech to see what games we are playing! Maybe a game of Club Mech Chalkboard Bingo, and maybe a few casual games of foos. If everyone comes by, maybe the odd celebratory cans of cheer after the last final?

Come check us out! The room'll be open!

Requisite Rant:

Having meetings RIGHT BEFORE finals sucks. Believe me. It sucks ☹

Most people complain about having finals, but I think those are fine. Once fourth year comes along, finals decrease and deliverables increase. It's more representative of post university life, but it's an awkward mix of academics and deliverables that just don't really work.

Add a meeting days before your most critical final, then throw in a bit of EUS deliverables, student team deliverables and last minutes Christmas Party joy and you get an exciting last week.

/stressed!

Mech Sales!

Club Mech has an awesome collection of shirts, hoodies, and badges for sale. Talk to Krista or any exec. A price list is on the bulletin board!
